Grucci Fireworks Display Lights the Sky Over Montauk's Umbrella Beach on July 4 at 9 p.m.

Umbrella Beach in Montauk will rock on Independence Day, Saturday, July 4, when the world-famous Fireworks by Grucci puts on a show for the Montauk community and visitors.

The Montauk Chamber of Commerce annually sponsors the show, called "Stars Over Montauk." The Chamber members, as well residents and visitors, fund the sensational show for the enjoyment of all and to celebrate the founding of our country.

If you'd like to donate to the show, visit the Montauk Chamber of Commerce website, www.montaukchamber.com and click on GoFundMe on the homepage. Or stop in the Chamber office to purchase a raffle tickets for prizes including three baskets of items, one for kids, one geared for families, and a basket for couples worth more than $200.

The show takes place at Umbrella Beach, located approximately 1/8 mile west of downtown Montauk.

Visit the Chamber's Facebook page for updates on "Stars over Montauk" fireworks as the date nears: www.facebook.com/pages/montauk-chamber-of-commerce.
