Montauk Concert for the Concerts Helps Chamber's Free Summer Series, April 28

The Montauk Chamber's annual, free summer Monday Night Concerts on the Green is a top draw for locals and visitors. Each year the community's families come out in the spring for the "Concert for the Concerts," a late afternoon of foot-stomping music to help raise money to add to the Chamber's support for the concerts. This year's gig is on April 28 at Sole East Resort, 3 to 7 p.m., starring Ray Red, the 3 B's and the Potter-Tekulsky Band.

"Montauk's Monday concerts are big draws for our guests, the community and downtown businesses but they need to be funded," says Laraine Creegan, executive director of the chamber. "Each year we try to spice up the fundraiser and are delighted that Sole East Resort is a new venue to come to this year."

Entry is $10 for adults and kids are free. There are a fifty-fifty raffle and free raffles for kids and a cash bar for food and beverages.

Concerts take place on Mondays on the Green starting in June through August. Sunday concerts on Gosman's Dockside Stage on the Harbor are held in July and August. Visit our Facebook page for concert updates: <https://www.facebook.com/pages/Montauk-Chamber-of-Commerce/296102421861>
