MONTAUK EXHIBITS AT NY TIMES 2020 TRAVEL SHOW

Montauk Chamber executive director, Laraine Creegan, and Chamber travel business members will exhibit Montauk's visitor attractions at The New York Times Travel Show on the January 24 to 26 weekend. It is a cooperative program with New York State's I Love NY and Long Island's Discover Long Island tourism entities, held at the Jacob K. Javits Convention Center in New York. Come visit us at both 759!

"Tourism is Montauk's number one industry," according to Creegan. "Travel enhances the hamlet economically and socially. Furthermore, how many of us came out as visitors, loved it and bought second homes?" she mused, relating travel to the real estate industry that is Montauk's second largest economic driver.

Thousands of the Montauk Vacation Guides will be distributed with information such as the best time to visit, how to get there and around easily, when the deals are, and the best beaches for various lifestyles. Everyone will be directed to the website for up to the minute events and member businesses. Show-goers can win Getaway trips to Montauk that include complimentary overnight stays at hotels, lunches, Jitney transportation and tickets to attractions. There will be on the spot giveaways from the Montauk Chamber and other exhibiting members of the Discover LI Team.

Montauk Chamber of Commerce is a member business organization dedicated to providing community leadership for the development of and sustaining a sound economy, primarily through responsible tourism, for Montauk, NY. It provides leadership in the creation of constructive community action and a forum for the exchange of ideas and information for the betterment and care of the hamlet.
